

Journey of Surjaban 2011-23

Sur Jahan (earlier known as Sufi Sutra) is a World Peace Music Festival developed by banglanatak dot com, a 20 years old Kolkata-based social enterprise specializing in Culture and Development. "Music for All & Music for Peace" is the Mantra of this non-commercial festival which celebrates cultural diversity. Music teams from 30 countries and 10 states of India have participated since its inception in 2011. Each year 5-6 international bands participate in the festival, which has day-time cultural exchange workshops and evening concerts. Rural handicraft and traditional folk artists also participate in the festival, creating an ambience of a carnival. More than 10,000 persons attend the festival every day in Kolkata. It has been termed as a 'people's festival' by the media worldwide and has evolved as a head liner festival in both Kolkata and Goa.

Apart from Spain, there are participants from Denmark. Sweden, Portugal, Iran,

Bangladesh, Punjab, Rajasthan and West Bengal. The same teams would now visit Patna to participate in a festival organised by the Bihar government and then travel to New Delhi where the International Centre for Cultural Relations would host them

In Kolkata, the festival started on Friday morning when Bangladesh's 'Arnob and Friends' started the workshop at Moharkunja, During concerts in the evening, teams from Iran and Portugal had set the tone: Be absorbed and feel liberated. The Portuguese Team, Mu,
