Sur Jahan - World Peace Music Festival

"If music be the food of love, play on" – Shakespeare

Sur Jahan is a World Peace Music Festival, which started its journey in 2011 at Kolkata. Over the years, the festival has also travelled to several places like Panjim, Delhi, Jaipur, Patna and has been attended by music lovers from all over the world including international festival organizers and directors. Sur Jahan upholds the motto of 'Music for Peace, Music for All' and has been a people's festival, where till date musicians from 34 countries have performed in this festival. The festival presents root music of the world and upholds the potential of music to bring social cohesion and peace. With the essence of celebrating cultural diversity, Sur Jahan is an ideal space for music lovers to experience world music.

Memoirs of Sur-Jahan 2019

The recently non-commercial festival focuses on exchange and the forging of new musical friendships. Being place near construction landmarks in Kolkata and Goa respectively, morning workshops with artists make way for evening concerts from renowned Bengali musicians and international performers. To date, artists from 26 countries and 12 Indian states have joined the festival, with Chitra La and Intimati's Tachar among the highlights for 2019.

What's new Sur-Jahan 2019 has a new theme, 'Music for peace'. The festival is a platform for artists to share their stories and experiences. The festival is a platform for artists to share their stories and experiences. The festival is a platform for artists to share their stories and experiences.
